Jeffrey	Clemenic	US	https://www.talenthouse.com/i/1363/submission/282839/246df1c2	This animated GIF was inspired by Andy Warhol's art style. A pop art celebration of the new X-Class. Emphasizing the gear hauling capacity for adventure sport enthusiasts. 10 seconds looping.
Stefan	Katanic	Serbia	https://www.talenthouse.com/i/1363/submission/282834/492f52af	My idea was to depict the wide range of possibilities that come with the Mercedes-Benz X-Class in a concise, fluid and attractive way. João	Souza	Brazil	https://www.talenthouse.com/i/1363/submission/281843/5ccc7eb5	My artwork it has resulted in short film that I tried to show all the X-class's power and comfort. The quick cuts and scene transitions shows the adventurous spirit and explorer that spread into the symbol of the brand telling in a subtle way the genuine adjectives of Mercedes-Benz. Neil	Shrubbs	UK	https://www.talenthouse.com/i/1363/submission/282261/fba9127c	As the x-class is the adventure vehicle for any situation, I designed an as yet undiscovered environment full of colour and possibilities. I packed the car full of adventure sports equipment, ready for the unexpected	Instagram: www.instagram.com/neilshrubbs Facebook: www.facebook.com/neil.shrubbs
Matthew	Baldoz	US	https://www.talenthouse.com/i/1363/submission/282627/7994ed86	Its meant to imply that the X-class is perfect for the extreme athlete no matter what the sport. The three designs of the X-class relate to its payload. This simple designs bright colors are meant to grab your attention and be easily deciphered with a quick glimpse.	Facebook: Matthew Baldoz
Eric	Ibasco	Philippines	https://www.talenthouse.com/i/1363/submission/282572/f6100486	The idea behind my artwork was to keep it simple because I love the 'minimalism' style. I titled it on the submission: 'Stay Classy. A Black and White design to match the Classy look of the new X-Class.' By applying only the basic shapes and simple colours we can still achieve greatness. Just as the new Mercedes-Benz X-Class: simple but elegant, no matter in which way you look at it. Adhitha	Wisnu	Indonesia	https://www.talenthouse.com/i/1363/submission/282242/82698f12	My artwork was inspired by 80's vaporwave art/neon concept and the trailer of the X-Class commercial in which the vehicle was chased by a huge spaceship. I wanted to portray the X-Class in some adventurous and exciting driving experiences in a futurist modern and urban setting. I created a scene that involves two Mercedes-Benz products. In this case it's a sedan type which you can see right next to the X-Class.	Twitter: @addydesign79
Jose Luis	Maldonado	Ecuador	https://www.talenthouse.com/i/1363/submission/282337/0775612a	My work is based on the versatility of the car highlighting aspects such as confidence and design, framing it in an amazing environment in which several scenarios are combined and in which the X-Class performance develops its maximum potential evoking a parallelism between the adventure, the city, everyday life and fun. Amit	Gonsalves	India	https://www.talenthouse.com/i/1363/submission/282610/1699f94d	It was an amazing opportunity showcasing my skills on a brand like Daimler Chrysler. My thoughts were to highlight the X-Class passing through various terrains into a complete unknown territory (showing a blank canvas) with X-plore written above, 'X' being the unknown value, leaving it to the viewers imagination and also tying it nicely with Mercedes-Benz X-Class. Martina	Goldbeck	Germany	https://www.talenthouse.com/i/1363/submission/282446/ae626505	For this creative invite I created a story of a young couple who live in an urban metropole. They work as freelancers in multimedia (film, photography). They always find hidden and wild places like the Halloween party or the beach with rotten boats, a romantic lake for fishing or a lovely house at a beautiful lake. I was educated as a poster painter, and I create fantastic illusions and dreams. I love poster - and cinema painting. This work of art is painted with "Plectol on paper", a special form of acrylic paint, which looks like oil.	Facebook: @MartinaGoldbeck Instagram: @MartinaGoldbeck Twitter: @MartinaGoldbeck
Pál	Oláh	Hungary	https://www.talenthouse.com/i/1363/submission/282781/1a312ab0	I was inspired by the off-road aspects of the X-Class, and how it crosses different rugged terrains in style, and tried to show the relationship between the car and the adverse elements: Dirt, Grit, Water and Concrete.
